St Andrew's Church and Guildhall. This is the oldest and most interesting building in the Three Towns. There was a church of St. Andrew-in-Sutton here in 1291, but the present church was erected between 1385 and 1441, and the massive tower in 1460. Blake's heart is buried here. The Guildhall has a magnificent hall, 145 feet long, 85 feet wide, and 70 feet high, with a fine organ. A noble view may be had from its tower, 190 feet high.
